

Day Out With Thomas™

October 1-3, 2010 • Burnet, Texas

Hosted by the Austin Steam Train Association

Maps not to scale

Driving Directions

- From Hwy. 281 traveling north: In downtown Burnet, turn right (east) at the light onto Hwy. 29 and go 4 blocks. Turn right onto S. Boundary Street...
- From Hwy. 281 traveling south: In downtown Burnet, turn left (east) at the light onto Hwy. 29 and go 4 blocks. Turn right onto S. Boundary Street...
- From Hwy. 29 traveling west: After crossing the railroad tracks coming into Burnet, look for the H-E-B grocery store on the left. Turn left at the next intersection onto S. Boundary Street...
- From Hwy. 29 traveling east: In downtown Burnet, continue through the light at Hwy. 281 and go 4 more blocks. Turn right onto S. Boundary Street...

Go 2 blocks on Boundary Street. The Burnet Community Center is on the southeast corner of Boundary and Jackson Streets.

The Burnet Community Center is on the southeast corner of Boundary and Jackson Streets.

Once you get close to the Community Center, you will need to start looking for a place to park.

Event Parking

There are two dedicated parking areas just west of the Community Center. There will be signs on Boundary Street directing visitors to these lots. Additional parking is available on city streets within walking distance of the event.

Handicap Parking

There are handicap parking spaces at the northwest corner of the Community Center. To reach the handicap parking from Hwy. 29, go south on Boundary Street. The handicap parking is on the east (left) side of Boundary Street, just north of (before) Jackson Street.

Note: League and Jackson Streets are blocked at the railroad tracks for the Day Out With Thomas event.